The YMCA International Learning Center provides 6 levels of English as a Second Language, Computer classes, citizenship classes, and health classes and job skills training. We offer classes in the morning, evening and Saturdays. In the classroom, students learn a combination of grammar, reading, speaking, listening, and conversation skills. We often use the services of volunteers to assist with our lowest level students, or students from any level who would like extra help. Generally, volunteers will meet individually with a student at least once per week for a 6-week duration. During this time, the volunteer will tutor the student in whichever areas need improvement. This could be conversation, homework help, reading, listening, etc. Staff at the YMCA will provide an overview of the needs of each student to be tutored.
